

of five hundred dollars, one-half to the informer and the other half to the State.

8. Nothing herein contained shall impair the rights of the corporations of the cities of Baltimore, Annapolis, Frederick, or the commissioners of any incorporated town in this State, to impose a further tax on billiard tables.

BROKERS.

9. Any person applying for the same, and paying the sum of one hundred dollars, may obtain a license for carrying on the business of exchange broker.

10. Any person applying for the same, and paying the sum of seventy-five dollars, may obtain a license for carrying on the business of stock-broker.

11. Any person applying for the same, and paying the sum of fifty dollars, may obtain a license for carrying on the business of bill broker.

12. Any broker's license may be obtained by partnerships or firms, as well as by individuals.

13. Any person who shall make it a business to deal in any manner upon his own account, or for others, in the purchase or sale of stocks, bills, notes, bank notes or other obligations, shall be deemed and taken to be a broker; Provided, that no person having a license himself, shall be obliged to pay a license for the clerks or agents employed by him.

14. If any person who has obtained such license shall die, or shall remove from and cease to use and exercise the business of a broker thereunder in the county or city therein named, before the expiration of the term therein specified, the benefit of said license for the unexpired term shall inure to and be continued in his legal representative or assignee, upon application to the proper clerk for that purpose, accompanied by the oath of the party applying, made before a judge of a court of record and endorsed on said license, that the party or parties to whom said license was originally granted is or are deceased, or has or have removed from and ceased to use or exercise the said business in the county or city named in said license.